Michael Miller and Susanna Bechtol
Introduction and History

Background

It is believed that the Millers, then spelled Mueller, came from a village about 10 miles north of Bern, Switzerland called Zollikofen. It is believed that in the 1500's they elected to become a part of the Reformed Church.

During the first half of the seventeenth century, Switzerland was untouched by the horrors of the Thirty Years' War and enjoyed peace and prosperity. It had a good market for its excess products. During the second half of the same century a social reaction set in which was made more acute by political and religious confusion. In 1653, the peasants of the Cantons of Bern, Luzern, Solthurn and Basel revolted against the authorities chiefly for social reasons. Since there were good opportunities for new settlers in depopulated Germany, many people left the Canton of Bern during this period and journeyed northward into foreign parts. This immigration into the "lowland" (Neiderland) as the destination of the emigrants used to be called, lasted into the eighteenth century and was much more numerous than the emigration to America that ran parallel to it.

The earliest ancestor that has been documented is a Johann Michael Mueller, who is believed to have been born in 1655 in the City of Zollikofen, Canton of Bern, Switzerland. He died 1-31-1695 at age 40 years in Steinwenden, Germany.

It is likely that in the late 1680's this family along with perhaps other friends and relatives moved north along the Rhine River and settled in the Rhineland-Pfaltz area of southern Germany. They became part of the Steeinwinder and Konken Germany Reformed parish churches and records of their respective families are recorder in the church records. The Steinwendern records began in 1684.

The Seteinwenden and Konnken records indicate the following related families:

The Konken Church - The Berchtol Family

1 Hans Jacob Berchtoll b 1686 d 1739 m Anna Marie Glosselloss.

1. Johann Nichel Mueller b 6-5-1685 d 6-6-1685.
2. Johann Abraham Mueller b 6-9-1686 and died.
3. Samuel Mueller b 4-30-1687 and died same day.
4. Catharine Barbara Mueller b 6-7-1688 d 6-21-1691
5. Eva Carharine Mueller b 4-29-1691 d 6-29-1691
6. Johann Michael Mueller b 10-5-1692 (our immigrant)

While we see the early family as members of the German Reformed Churches in Germany, we are lead to believe that the immigrant families attended the Mennonite and German Baptist Brethren societies in Chester and Montgomery Counties, PA. The Bechtol families were Mennonite and we believe that the Stutsman, Garber and Miller families attended the German Baptist Brethren (ChB) in Coventry Township, Chester County and Manheim Township, York Co., PA and Frederick (later called Washington) Co., MD.

Many German Baptist Brethren (ChB) Ministers

Early German Baptist Brethren societies or congregations met in the homes and barns. Strong leaders called Bishops or Elders ministered to them in small groups. Churches were not built until the mid-1800's in most areas. Early established societies were the Coventry (1724), Chester Co., PA, Little Conewingo (1738) York Co., PA and Beaver Creek (1752) ,Pipes Creek (1751) Frederick Co., MD, Beaver Dam & Israel Creek (1747), Frederick Co., MD, Antietam (1752), Franklin Co, PA & Washington, Co., MD

Some think that Michael Miller [Sr.], # 1, and some of his sons were members at Little Conewingo and the Antietam congregations. Elder Nicholas Martin, the Elder of the churches in the area where they lived, reports on the health of Michael Miller and Jacob Stutsman in his letters to Alexander Mack Jr. We understand that Michael Miller and Jacob Miller were witnesses when Nicholas Martin was naturalized in 1762. It was this Nicholas Martin that gives the year 1771 as the death of Michael Miller [Sr].

George Miller, # 15, became a member of the Conestoga congregation in 1752. In 1756 he moved with some of the families to an area near Elizabethtown, PA that later became the Great Swatara congregation and he became their first preacher. His gravestone is in the old Elizabethtown College Library.

Lodowich Miller, # 16, was likely a lay member in the Beaver Creek area, as the ChB at that time was meeting in homes and barns. We found that he owned many farms. We are not sure which farms he lived on. Some say that he lived in Taneytown, MD at the time of his death. Many of his children were church ministers and leaders. It is reported that over 80 percent of Lodowich & Barbara Miller's descendants remained with the Church of the Brethren as they moved south and west.

Barbara Miller, # 19, married Eld. John H. Garber, a German immigrant who became a minister who worked under Jacob Danner at York Co., PA, Frederick Co., MD, and was one of the first ministers at the Flat Rock congregation, Shenandoah Co., VA. He served the churches faithfully until his death.

Jacob Miller, # 1A, was ordained a minister by Elder William

Stover at the Antietam congregation in Franklin Co., PA. He had moved there from Pipes Creek, MD. About 1775 he moved to what was soon to be called Franklin Co., VA. Slavery was a problem to this minister and church leader. He moved to OH and IN, preaching and establishing churches as he went. He had a big family and five of his sons became ChB ministers and leaders. For more see pp 894 & 838 (S-12).

These are the first Generation Miller church leaders. If we look into the next four generations we see many strong ChB Elders and church leaders. We will only name a few: D. L. Miller, Rufus and Warren Bowman, Dewitt L. Miller, Minor C. Miller, Peter S. Miller, Jacob Thomas, Abram S. Thomas, John T. Glick, John P. Zigler, David Zigler, Daniel Miller II and his nine sons that became ministers, seven Garber sons of Barbara Miller and Elder John H. Garber, and many more.

The writer found that many of the Miller descendants in colonial days built houses with movable partitions in order to accommodate the members as they met in their homes. Some barns were built to accommodate the larger meetings. In the early 1800's to late 1800's Miller and Garber descendants gave land for the building of meeting houses, schools and cemeteries.
In many of the areas where these descendants lived as they moved west, you will find a Miller Cemetery which was likely donated to the church or community by one of Michael's descendants.

This writer did not research the Miller descendants who remained with the Lutheran and Evangelical Reformed congregations in PA and MD. He understands that many of the Miller names can be found on their rolls as they tended to keep better records of births, deaths and marriages than did the German Baptist Brethren congregations. It is believed that Michael Miller II, # i8, and his line remained with the Lutheran/ Evangelical congregations as the names of children from his line were furnished from such church records in York and Adams Cos, PA.

Michael Miller and Susanna Bechtol
Introduction and History

A Miller Story

Our work begins as a follow up of work done by Gene Miller (S-54). During a telephone conversation, he said that he believed if someone had the time to go through land records we would be able to unravel much more information about the life of Michael Miller. We attempted to do that and this is what we found.

After an intensive search of deeds, administrative records, Wills and tax records, after reading correspondence and books written by Miller (S-54), Bell (S-75), Williams (S-67), Gleim (S-56), and personal records of Dr. Mary Lontz, and after a drive through the countryside of the enclosed map, we are now ready to give you our best understanding of the nature and life of Michael Miller [Sr].

Many have confused Michael Miller [Sr]. with some of his children. We first have to accept the fact that Michael Miller [Sr]. gave some of his children the same names. There were three Michaels, two Hans, two Johns and two Jacobs.

We have found two dates of arrival. Most sources are using the arrival date for Michael Miller and Jacob Stutsman of 10-3-1727 on the "Adventurer". Some are using the arrival date of 9-23-1732 on the "Adventurer". We suggest that he may have returned to his mother country to get the settlement of his father's estate and returned in 1732. We cannot find any record of the settlement of the estate, but soon after the date of 1732, Michael and Susanna began to look for land. He is recorded as paying a tax for land in Chester County, Coventry Township, PA for the years 1732 - 1740. He took out a warrant for 200 acres of land in 1737 but never obtained a patent for the property.

Nicholas Garber, who had a warrant for 150 acres of land in Chester County, PA in 1734, vacated this land in 1747.

On 2-7-1744 Michael Miller, Nicholas Garber and Samuel Bechtol, s Hans Jacob & Elizabeth Bechtol who also lived in Chester County, PA purchased a tract of land consisting to 400 acres northeast of Hanover, PA in York Co. See circle # 12 on the PA map. Today this land is near Bair's Mennonite Church, perhaps lying south from the church.

Samuel and Michael got 150 acres, leaving 100 acres for Nicholas. Michael sold his 150 acres of land to Samuel Bechtol in 1752 and we cannot find out what happened to Nicholas' 100 acres. It was after Nicholas Garber's death, 1748, that Michael Miller sold his land to Samuel Bechtol. Michael married Nicholas Garber's widow and became the administrator of her estate. We suspect that he also sold this 100 acres of land to Samuel Bechtol. Samuel Bechtol was one of the Administrators of the Will of Nicholas Garber and Susanna Bechtol was his aunt. So you can see that this whole transaction was among family members.

We have no death date for Susanna Bechtol, the first wife of Michael Miller, but an administrative record in the Orphan's Court of York Co., PA states that in 1754, Elizabeth Garber, the widow of Nicholas Garber is now the wife of Michael Miller and that he is administrating the accounts for the Will. (Book A - 1749 to 1762, page 47, York Co., PA. Dec. 10, 1754) We believe that she died in 1752 at the time that Michael had land, "Ash Swamp," in MD. resurveyed for the three sons, John, Philip Jacob and Lodowich. This explains why there was no wife's signature on the deeds at that time and perhaps why the land was divided.

The four children of Nicholas and Elizabeth Garber were living in Frederick County before 1765. The Will gives the Names of Elizabeth and Samuel and we have determined that the other two were Anna and Martin.

To separate the three Michael Millers, Michael Miller [Sr]., Michael Miller Jr. and Hans Michael Miller, we use the information that is recorded in the Land Tax Records at Annapolis, MD in the Archives. This is what we found.

Each of the following is listed separately as follows.

Michael Miller [Sr]. 1762 & 63
- Skipton of Craven ... 100 acres
- Miller's Fancy ... 36 acres
- Skipton of Craven ... 180 acres
- Resurvey of Well Taught 409 acres

Michael Miller [Jr.] 1762 & 63
- Miller's Chance ... 50 acres - 1762 (the same land)
- Blindman's Choice .... 50 acres - 1763 to 1772
  (Most years it Miller's Choice was called Blindman's Choice)

Hans Michael Miller 1772

In addition to land in Antrim Twn., Franklin Co., PA and New Creek, now Mineral Co., WV as given in his Will, he paid taxes in 1772 Frederick Co., MD on the following:

- Resurvey of Nicholas Mistake 1025 acres
- Gardens Delight ..... 146 acres
- Add. Gardens Delight .... 28 acres
- Plunkets Doubt ..... 133 acres
- Maidens Walk ..... 35 acres
- Tonas Lott ..... 16 acres
- Small Hope ..... 20 acres
- Small Hope ..... 43 acres
- Rocky Creek ..... 150 acres

Page 24 (S-54) Gene Miller found that Hans Michael Miller was given 1000 pounds by his father Michael Miller [Sr]. to purchase Pleasant Gardens. What he purchased may have been an earlier name for what he called Gardens Delight and Add. Gardens Delight. If it was this land, it was land that his two sons sold to Jacob Good and was located near the land, "Huckelberry Hall", that Jacob Good bought from John Schnebly in 1787. It was located near Maugansville, MD. This land would go to the step-son and grandchildren of Elizabeth the step-mother of Hans Michael Miller. Jacob Good had remarried. This is a connection between the 1st set of Michael Miller [Sr].'s children and the second set who were his step-children.

We did not try to follow the land records of Hans Michael Miller, but did follow the land records of Michael Miller [Sr]. and Michael Miller [Jr.]

We found that Michael Miller [Sr]. paid taxes on his land and in his name for 1762 and 1763. He deeded all the land to his step children in 1765. After that he continued to pay taxes on 36 acres of Millers Fancy and 8 acres of Resurvey on Well Taught. From 1769 thru 1772 the tax was paid by the Heirs as seen on the Tax Books. There are some records that show that the tax was owed for several years and we believe that they did not get around to paying the tax until after his death in 1771. Michael Miller [Sr] lived for many years at the mouth of Little Antietam where it flows into Antietam Creek. (S-75) p 25

We found that after the death of Michael Miller [Sr]., 1771, both Michael Miller Jr. and Hans Michael Miller were paying the tax in 1772 and succeeding years. Philip Jacob Miller was paying taxes on "Ash Swamp" 290 acres and Lodowich Miller was paying taxes on land that he had bought near Taneytown, MD. (See circle # 7)

Now using the land records as a basis, we will give the transactions of some of the first and second generations of the Michael Miller family.

Michael Miller [Sr].

As previously stated Michael Miller was a man determined to take good care of his family. He seemed to always be on the search for good land and opportunities for his children. As stated previously he had moved from Chester County, PA in 1744 and bought land in York Co., PA. In 1752 he sold this to Samuel Bechtol as he was at that time living in Frederick Co., MD. (see circle # 12)

In 1745 he purchased "Ash Swamp" - 150 acres from John George Arnold. In 1752 he resurveyed it to sons, John, Philip Jacob and Lodowich. (see circle # 3)

In 1749 he had "Millers Fancy" surveyed - 36 acres. (grant) He lived here until his death in 1771. In 1765 it was deeded to John Riffe. (see circle # 4)

In 1749 he purchased "Skipton of Craven" - 180 + 100 acres from Thomas Crsasp and in 1765 deeded it to Jacob Good and John Rife. (see circle # 4)

In 1755 he purchased "Resurvey of Well Taught" - 409 acres from George Poe and in 1765 deeded it to Jacob Good and John Rife.

He lived on 8 acres of the 409 acres along with the 36 acres called "Miller's Fancy". (see circle # 4)

In 1760 he had "Blindman's Choice" surveyed - 50 acres. (grant) He gave this to Michael Miller Jr. who deeded it to his son Adam Miller. (see circle # 10)

In ?? he had "Range" surveyed - 50 acres. (grant) We believe that this is the 50 acres on Piney Creek that he sold in 1765 to Michael & Eve Tanner who deeded it to a son-in-law, John Storm. (see circle # 9) Was Eva one of Michael Miller and Susanna Bechtol's daughters that we have not discovered? Did she have children?

A DRIVE OUT CEARFOSS PIKE IN 1990

It was an autumn day in October 1990 that we turned north on State Road 58 and headed out the Cearfoss Pike from Hagerstown to Cearfoss, Maryland. Immediately we were impressed with the land to the right and to the left. This is some of the best farm land in Maryland. The Bank Barns and other buildings were large and indicated that they had been used through the years for bountiful harvests.

When we got to where Rush Run crosses Cearfoss Pike our attention was drawn to a roadsign MILLER'S FARM MARKET. We drove in a road to the East along beside a truck garden where the vegetables were grown. The market was not open and we went to the house and visited with Richard Oberholzer, the gardener. This proved to be very helpful in our search as his wife was a descendent of Samuel Horst whose father had purchased the land from John Schnebly, s Dr. Henry Schnebly, who in turn had purchased the land from Philip Jacob Miller and we knew that this was a part of the 1754 - 1796 Miller Plantation.

Michael Miller and Susanna Bechtol
Introduction and History

MICHAEL MILLER OF 1692

1 (Hans) Johann "Michael" Miller b 10-5-1692 d 1771, m Susanna Agnes Berchtol (Bechtol) b 5-3-1688, da Hans Berchtol & Anna Christina, m-2 Elizabeth Gerber, widow of Nicholas Gerber. He was the son of Johann Michael Miller & Irene Charitas, the father Johann m-2, Anna Loysa Regina; after Johann died 1695, Anna Loysa Miller, in 1696 m-2 Hans Jacob Stutzman. They then were the parents of Jacob Stutsman II b 1706 d 1773.

Michael Miller and Jacob Stutsman II came to America 10-3-1727 on the ship "Adventurer". They had lived in Switzerland and Germany. They first settled in Chester, Co., PA and then moved to an area near Hanover, PA. Samuel Bechtol I and Michael Miller each bought 150 acres of land in 1744. Nicholas Carver (Garber) also bought 100 acres. This was a 400 acre track of land that these three neighbors and friends purchased from a wealthy planter, John Stinchcomb. The entire tract was called "Batchelor's Choice". Michael sold this land to Samuel Bechtol I in 1752. He had also purchased land from John George Arnold in 1745 in Frederick Co, MD. He called this "Ash Swamp" and it was located near Hagerstown, MD. He was a father who was continually in search of land. He seemed to buy and get grants of land from undeveloped areas and placed his sons, step sons and step sons-in-law on this land. Later he gave or sold this land to them.

He and his 2nd wife had a grant of land surveyed for him in 1749 and granted to him in 1754. It was located between Skipton on Craven and Resurvey of Well Taught; it contained 36 acres that he called Miller's Fancy. This land is where they lived and was next to other land that was sold and/or given to a daughter of his second wife.

He did not leave a Will but distributed all his land to his children and step-children while he was living. Land records help us understand the mind and spirit of this wealthy land owner and great family man. It is reported that he died 1771 and we believe that he was buried on his plantation where he lived or in the family cemetery on John Miller's section of Ash Swamp.

We believe that he remained Lutheran or Reformed, however he may have attended or joined the German Baptist Brethren, ChB.

Jacob Stutsman II and Michael Miller were step brothers as Jacob's mother was Michael's step mother. Some records say that they lived and were buried at Conococheaque, Washington Co., near Hagerstown, MD. Michael and Susanna are thought to have had the following children.

+ 11 John Peter Miller b 1715 d 1794
+ 12 Hans Jeremiah Miller b 1717 d 1781
+ 13 David Miller b 1719 d 1785
+ 14 Hans Michael Miller b 1720 d 1784 m Elizabeth __?__.
+ 15 George Miller b 1722 d 1798 m Catherine __?__.
+ 16 Lodowich Miller 1724 d 1792 m Barbara __?__.
+ 17 Philip Jacob Miller b 1726 d 1799 m Magdalena Rochette
+ 18 Michael Miller II b 1728 d 1792
+ 19 Barbara Miller b 1733 d 1808 m John H. Garber.
+ 1A Jacob Miller b 1735 d 1815

1B Eva Elizabeth Miller m Michael Danner (Tanner) b 1696 d 1777 as his 2nd wife. They had a son Johannes Danner christened 1745 and dughter Elizabeth Danner who married John Storm.

1C Maria Elisabeth Miller b 3-19-1754 is listed on the roll at Zion Ref/Lutheran Church in Lower Burmudian (Mt. Olivet) York Co., PA. Her parents are Michael and Maria Elizabeth Miller. Some of us think that they had this child after their marriage about 1752/53. She would have been only eleven years old when her father passed his land at Leitersburg on to his step-children. No record of her has been found. She may not have lived to maturity.

Michael Miller [Sr]. m-2 Elizabeth Garber, widow of Nicholas Garber. He was their neighbor in York Co., PA and died in 1748, just four years after they moved from Chester Co., PA to York Co. It is recorded that Elizabeth Garber was the wife of Michael Miller in 1754. The will does not give the names of all four of the children of Elizabeth and Nicholas Garber who became step-children of Michael Miller. The Will named the oldest son, Samuel and one of the daughters, Elizabeth. The Will did not name the younger son or the other daughter. We believe that the younger son was Martin Garber [Sr]. who m Anna Preston and moved to Frederick Co., MD. He owned land on Beaver Dam and Israel Creeks. The second daughter was Ann or Anna who m John Reiffe or Rife and cared for her parents as long as they lived. We believe that Elizabeth m Jacob Good. These two daughters of Michael and Elizabeth (Garber) Miller got all the land owned by them in the Lighterburg, MD area.
(see land study section, MAPS, & circle 4 elsewhere in this book)

War Years

The Michael Miller descendants were brave and patriotic people in the new world. We hereby give you some information that we have found in order that you may know. They had moved from all over Germany, to Switzerland, back to Germany and then to America in order to have freedom from political and religious oppression. They wanted to raise their families in as much freedom as possible. As political empires rose and fell and as State Churches changed they wanted to remain true to their beliefs and therfore moved. When political and religious freedom was a problem and moving was not possible, they, like all other families, had to make compromises. We will discuss what happened during War Years. Many of our family, using the example of the "Ox in the Ditch" compromised with their religious beliefs and took combatant or non-combatant rolls in the Military for a few years. They returned to their civilian professions or jobs as soon as possible. A large number of them sought ways to serve the country in non-military jobs. Many of them were deferred to do work of national importance, such as farming. However, when a satisfactory job could not be obtained, many of them, in an effort to be true to their church's teaching on non-violance and peace, stood in defiance of the laws and suffered personal loss and sometime jail. Often the best thing to do was to move to an area where the law could not find them or to an area of the opposite side.

The compiler believes that the families of the Andes, Bears, Beerys, Bowmans, Branners, Burkholders, Earlys, Floras, Florys, Garbers, Garsts, Glicks, Goods, Holls, Hoovers, Hysers, Klines, Millers, Myers, Raders, Ritchies, Royers, Wamplers, Wengers and Zieglers, as mentioned in other parts of this book, likely came through these experiences.

A writer, Leslie A. Miller, and those from whom he quotes, present the positions and experiences of those who remained with

Miller Family Tree Record

This is the family tree of Michael Miller and Susanna Bechtol as we have found it.

Numbering System

We have used the Henry Numbering System, revised
The numbering system used gives the reader the generation and the child's number in each case. #1651C3 would be the number of Joseph Bowman and Mary E. Miller. The spouse has the same # as the descendent. You will read it as follows, 1st. Column is the 1st. Generation. The 2nd column is the 2nd Generation, etc. A = 10 B = 11 and so on.
The # in that column is the 1st., 2nd, etc. child of the previous child and so on. You will understand this as you begin to use it. The # is used twice, once in the gen. as the child and again in the next gen. as the parent. The + is given if the child is carried forward to the next generation using the same number.

1 (Hans) Johann "Michael" Miller b 10-5-1692 d 1771, m Susanna Agnes Berchtol (Bechtel) b 5-3-1688, da Hans Berchtol & Anna Christina, m-2 Elizabeth Gerber, widow of Nicholas Gerber. He was the son of Johann Michael Miller & Irene Charitas, the father Johann m-2, Anna Loysa Regina; after Johann died 1695, Anna Loysa Miller, in 1696 m-2 Hans Jacob Stutzman. They then were the parents of Jacob Stutsman II b 1706 d 1773.
Michael Miller and Jacob Stutsman II came to America 10-3-1727 on the ship "Adventurer". They had lived in Switzerland and Germany. They first settled in Chester, Co., PA and then moved to an area near Hanover, PA. Samuel Bechtol I and Michael Miller each bought 150 acres of land in 1744. Nicholas Carver (Garber) also bought 100 acres. This was a 400 acre track of land that these three neighbors and friends purchased from a wealthy planter, John Stinchcomb. The entire tract was called "Batchelor's Choice". Michael sold this land to Samuel Bechtol I in 1752. He had also purchased land from John George Arnold in 1745 in Frederick Co, MD. He called this "Ash Swamp" and it was located near Hagerstown, MD. He was a father who was continually in search of land. He seemed to buy and get grants of land from undeveloped areas and placed his sons, step sons and step sons-in-law on this land. Later he gave or sold all of his land to them.
He and his 2nd wife, Elizabeth Garber had a grant of land surveyed for him in 1749. It was granted to him in 1754 and it was located between Skipton on Craven and Resurvey of Well Taught and contained 36 acres that he called Miller's Fancy. This land was located at the mouth of Little Antietam where it flows into Antietam Creek. It is next to other land that was sold and/or given to a daughter of his second wife. For a fuller account of this see (S-74) and section "Miller Story".
He did not leave a Will but distributed all his land to his children and step-children while he was living. Land records help us understand the mind and spirit of this wealthy land owner and great family man. For a full study of this great man see section "Miller Story". It is reported that he died 1771 and we believe that he was buried on his plantation where he lived or on the family cemetery on John Miller's section of Ash Swamp.

He was Constable of Upper Antietam Hundred in 1760. See p 25 (S-75)

We believe that he remained Lutheran or Reformed, however he may have joined the ChB.

Jacob Stutsman II and Michael Miller were step brothers as Jacob's mother was Michael's step mother. Some records say that they lived and were buried at Conococheaque, Washington Co., near Hagerstown, MD. Michael and Susanna are believed to have had the following children.

+ 11 John Peter Miller b 1715 d 1794
+ 12 Hans Jeremiah Miller b 1717 d 1781
+ 13 David Miller b 1719 d 1785
+ 14 Hans Michael Miller b 1720 d 1784 m Elizabeth __?___.
+ 15 George Miller b 1722 d 1798 m Catherine __?__.
+ 16 Lodowich Miller 1724 d 1792 m Barbara __?___.
+ 17 Philip Jacob Miller b 1726 d 1799 m Magdalena Rochette
+ 18 Michael Miller [II] b 1728 d 1792
+ 19 Barbara Miller b 1733 d 1808 m John H. Garber.
+ 1A Jacob Miller b 1735 d 1815

Gene Miller (S-54) says that other than John, Lodowich and Philip Jacob there is a lot of conjecture as to the children of Michael. At one time he had a Christian and Susannah, which he did not include in (S-54)

Also p 27 (S-56) we find the same children and in the same order. There is a little different information and I have combined the difference above making both of them different from their sources but helping give a clearer picture.

Second Generation

11 John Peter Miller b 1715 d 1794 (Will 1794 Washington Co., MD) m __?__. His wives name was not given in his Will. The spread of the birthyears in the children almost mean that there were more than one wife. He lived and died on the farm Ash Swamp in Washington Co., MD. He left a Will in which his farm was to be sold and the proceeds distributed. The son Daniel & son-in-law, John Fisher sold the land in 1795 to John Schnebly, s Henry Schnebly Sr. See p 32 (S-54) and Appendix 2 of this book.

+ 113 Catherine Miller m John Fisher - co-administrator
114 Susannah Miller m Ludwig? Wissinger
+ 115 Mary Miller b c1746 d 1822 m-1 Peter Studebaker b c1740 d 1790, s immigrant Peter Studebaker & Anna Aschauer. They lived in KY. She m-2 Patrick Campbell. see (S-71) p 153

168 John Miller b 1758 d 1791 m Margaret __?__. He was born in Frederick Co., MD. He owned about 210 acres that had formerly belonged to his father. It was located in Frederick Co., MD. On 9-27-1792 he and Margaret, wife, sell the 210 acres to Abraham Miller. We do not believe that the two Millers were related. See p 138 (S-55)
+ 169 Frances Miller m John Long b 1761 d 1838, s Isaac Long II. Some think that she is another da of Lodowich Miller and therefore we put her here. If not, all numbers beginning with 169 should be removed.
+ 16A Elizabeth Miller b 1760 m Samuel Garber. She was born in Frederick Co., MD. (see foot note)

They were farmers and land owners living in Washington Co, MD from about 1745 to 1796 when he moved to Campbell Co., KY where he died in 1799. He owned Ash Swamp and had added additional land to where he owned 290 acres in 1796 at the time he sold his portion to Dr. Henry Schnebly, a big land owners son John Schnebly. We are not sure that he bought land in KY but he had bought 2000 acres of land in Warren Co., OH and his family moved there after his death. ChB

I have a Jacob Miller in my database, born 1735 to Johanne Michael and Susanna Agnes (Berchtal) Miller - no other information. Any chance this would be the same Jacob? ---- After all, there are not all that many Millers and Jacob is an uncommon name! <G>

Hello all,

There are three paragraphs on Jacob Miller, hope this helps:

MILLER, JACOB, 1735?-1815, minister. Born of unknown Swiss-German parents in what became Franklin Co.,PA. Miller may have been ordained by William Stover (further info under this name) in the Antietam congregation in 1762.

Michael Barnhart/Jack Clopper

Here's some more information on Elder Jacob Miller - may help in your considerations:

My wife is a descendent of Elder Jacob Miller. I have done considerable research into the beginnings of the Four Mile Church, near Boston IN (where I live) and College Corner OH (Upper and Lower Churches). As most of the Miller children lived here, this includes study of Elder Jacob. In 1809, he came over from Dayton OH, to assist in the founding of the Four Mile Church, for his own children, and their families. (my article in this issue of Brethren Roots)

There is a lot of both known facts and traditions mixed in a story of Elder Jacob, and from these -all we can draw are some hypothesis.

Austin Cooper found the name of "Jacob Miller, now in the Miami Valley Ohio", ordained to the Eldership at the Stoney Creek Church in Brothers Valley PA, in 1765. (on the inside of the back cover of the Council Meeting Record Book, 1809 --that can only be "our" Elder Jacob) Tradition says he was advanced to the ministry under William Stover (the Antietam Church, MD). On the basis, that only a married man could be elected to the ministry (c1762), and that he likely moved to Brothers Valley in 1764 (dau born in 1764 in Maryland) -that date would probably have been 1763.

The first record of Elder Jacob in Franklin Co VA is 1773, when he bought his land on the Blue Ridge, at the head of the Blackwater River. (age: 38 years) The cabin site was located about 100 yards west of the Blue Ridge Parkway, at Adney Gap, -he sold this land to Mr Adney, 1802, after he went to Ohio.

Son Tobias, as an elderly man, was living with his son William, South Bend IN, when the 1850 Census was taken there - he said he was born in Pennsylvania. When the 1850 Census was taken in LaPorte Co -he was with his daughter, Margaret Farrand, -he said he was born in Maryland. Tobias was born 15 Mar 1773. He was the 6th child. His oldest sister, Mary, 9 years old, was born in Maryland (1764). His brother, John, 3 years old, was born in Maryland (1769).

We have possibly found Jacob owning land on Fishing Creek, in the Catoctin Mountains, off the Monocacy River/Monocacy Road, Frederick Co MD. This land was bought in 1762 and sold in 1784. (tax records match above travels -last tax paid: 1772) This is in the old Beaver Dam Congregation -and across the mountains from Antietam. If this is true -his wife's name was Elizabeth.

--the conjecture is: that Elder Jacob bought his land in Franklin Co VA, in the winter/spring of 1773, but moved his wife and family, with newborn baby, to kin in Franklin Co PA, while he went down, cleared the land, planted a crop, and built a cabin. Tobias couldn't be sure which state he was born in, and to which he was taken as a baby, but it was one or the other.

some additional information:

Some additional information:

Tobias is a family name: one of Elder Jacob's known brothers, Tobias Miller, married Barbara Brower at the Coventry Church. There were Millers at Coventry. There were "five of the brothers, all ministers, who moved down the Valley to Franklin Co" -according to Jacob Miller Jr. of Giles Co. VA (Patricia Johnson, "Elder Jacob Miller"). Tobias was one, Baltzer was another --we have his will, in it he names a sister: Catherine. From Bedford/Franklin County VA records, I'm hazarding a guess that the other two are: Daniel and Isaac. These fit his children's names -per the old German naming tradition. This also goes along with the tradition, that he was the son of one of three brothers: Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. Another tradition says they were immigrants.

Peter D Ridenour, Jacob's great grandson, writing on his family history, says Elder Jacob was born in 1735, in Franklin Co PA. I am proposing that while Elder Jacob came to Franklin Co PA as a child, that he actually was born at Coventry, and that his parents will be found among the Millers there, and were in the migration from Coventry to this part of Pennsylvania/Maryland.

I've found too many great grandsons, who make small errors in their records, because too much time has passed! -Yet much of our information about Elder Jacob Miller comes from this book. One thing is -Peter would have to be putting later knowledge to an earlier event -1735 is a very early date for that far west (Alexander Mack had only brought his shipload of Brethren over from Germany six years before!), at that time no Franklin Co PA existed, it was still part of a huge Lancaster Co.

Peter D Ridenour didn't live back east -by the time he wrote the book (1907), these families had now moved still farther west -out near St Louis (although I'm sure he was rich enough to travel extensively). He was going on what he remembered from his family and community (kin), stories told about Elder Jacob. (Peter's mother was Tobias Miller's daughter, Barbara. -he was born in College Corner, the Miller kin lived all around him.) His small book was primarily on his Ridenour ancestory (of Hagarstown MD -his grandfather, Peter Ridenour, had come out to the Four Mile in 1800), only one short chapter, a few pages, is on Elder Jacob Miller. The Ridenour brothers were Railroad Magnates -about 1850-5, they had built a major line from Cincinnati to Indianapolis to St Louis (through their home at College Corner OH, and the Lower Four Mile Church community!!). The railroad is still active.

Leave the Valley of Virginia at the Roanoke Gap, and take the Old Carolina Road (now US 220 -or close to it). At Boones Mill you are in the Maggodee Creek Valley, and just beyond the ridge, before you come to Rocky Mount, you cross the Blackwater River. Cahas Mountain is between the two valleys. Then there's Morton's Mountain, and Graveyard Knob and Whistling Hill, then you come to Pigg Creek and Turner Creek and Five Mile Mountain. The actual road went nearer the foot of these mountain spurs, than US 220. This was a major migration route for the Brethren, many settled on the Yadkin River in North Carolina as early as 1760-1770 (some before).

Elder Jacob Miller's preaching converted an Englishman, William Smith, who went around with him, and while Elder Jacob preached in German, William Smith preached in English. There are many Brethren Congregations in Franklin and Floyd Cos VA resulting from their activities. Elder Jacob Miller lived there from 1773 to 1800, and this area was just then being settled by both the Germans from Pennsylvania, and the English coming up the Roanoke and Blackwater Rivers from the eastern colonies.

Elder Jacob Miller's cabin was on the Blue Ridge, west above the Blackwater River Valley, at Adney Gap (He sold his land to Adney, when he left for Ohio in 1800). The located site was about 100 yards west of the Blue Ridge Parkway.
The later community used a union church, the Blackwater Chapel, near the foot of Cahas Mt (now the Monte Vista Church). The building was stated as built in 1885, but I have family claims of membership there in the late 1790s (Toney).

His children married into the various German/Brethren families that settled in the Maggodee, Pigg and Blackwater Valleys: Philip Lybrook Sr, Jacob Kingery Sr, Abraham Darst, Abraham Ritter, Halbert McClure, Samuel Henderson, John Mills, Daniel Spangler, Luke Webster, John Webster, Samuel Webster, Jacob Naff, Abraham Abshire, Luke Abshire, Thomas Fowler, William Toney, James Huston, Isaac Bates, Joseph Price, Shadrach Woodson, Nathan Sellers, Daniel Donahoe, Stephen Lee, Thomas Helm, Peter Cober, Paul Beck, John Noftsinger, Henry Landes, James Flora, Jacob Boone, Thomas Webb, Charles Brobaker, Daniel Barnhart, Jacob Prillman, John Biby, John Shively, John Troup, John Hoff, Henry Carper (Garber?), John Mason, James McVey, Thomas Harter, Thomas Helm. (is that enough? -courtesy of papers from Gertrude Mann of Rocky Mount VA)

Members of these families came to Southern Ohio, following the Miller family. Many of his Children came to the Four Mile Church on the Ohio/Indiana State Line soon after 1800. These families followed the old Shawnee Indian War Path, called the Kanawha Trace, from Giles Co VA, along the New/Kanawha and Coal Rivers, through the West Virginia Mountains to the Ohio at Gallipolis. This path was used -dangerously in 1780s, -significantly after the Indians were defeated by General Wayne, at Fallen Timbers, and the Treaty of Greenville (OH) was signed, 1795. I wonder if some of my William Smiths, here on the Four Mile are children/grandchildren of the William Smith of Franklin Co VA.

I'm working on the History of the Stonelick Church of the Brethren, Southern Ohio District, a meetinghouse of the old Obannon Church, founded 1795 (by tradition); the first Brethren Church north of the Ohio River. For some of you that didn't see the summary in Brethren Roots - Here are my families: (so far!) (1795-1820)

Bowman: a first family in the area -lived north -Warren Co OH? c1790
John, deacon, son of Jacob/Fronica, and son David

Miller: Philip Jacob children; --2000 Acres, north of Goshen OH
David Miller -first, before 1798, 1805 to Montgomery Co OH (Dayton)
Daniel Miller -1798, bought adjacent to David -1805 to Montgomery Co
Daniel Ulrich --to Goshen, Elkhart Co IN
Daniel Cripe to Goshen, Elkhart Co IN (includes: Snell, Maugans, Cramer, Snider) also -5 Miller brothers, from Centre Co PA, Penns Valley sons of Heinrich Miller; Northumberland Co PA
at Bullskin Landing/Olive Branch Church

Aukerman/Ockerman: John -to Dennison Barracks -on Little Miami River, ?1789

Stouder: Founding Elder, by tradition: David Stouder -non resident could be the David Stover -of near Limestone/Maysville KY -1800
John -of Cambria Co PA/died, children came -about 1802 some on to Dayton area/Elkhart IN Stouder Cemetery -original Burial Grounds/Log Church

Binkley: Jacob -married Sarah Stouder, gave land for Stonelick building.

Grossnickle: David -from Middletown Valley MD, one of present active families

Houser: Abraham -minister at Olive Branch, from Conococheague MD

Hoover: John -early log church on his farm, Olive Branch -from Conococheague MD

Karns: Gabrial, son of minister Conrad Kerns, Salisbury NC

Maugans: children of Conrad/Rebecca -of Middletown Valley MD

Metzgar: Conrad and Leonard, brothers --Olive Branch Church

Moler: John/Joseph -?of Joseph Moler, Hinkson Creek KY

Moyer/Myers: Jacob -from Centre Co PA/Penns Valley -wife, Eve Frybarger

also: 5 Moyer Bros -from Centre Co PA -to Bullskin/Olive Br Church

Pringle: William -wife: Nancy Binkley, from ?Morrisons Cove, PA -one of present active families

Rohrer: John --Olive Branch Church, moved to Indiana

Shetterly: Andrew, from Centre Co PA wife: Elizabeth? Stroups

Stoner: Philip, probably from Pipe Creek Church, Maryland

Ulrey: Jacob -from Frederick Co Md --10 Mile Creek

Weaver: Frederick/wife -Elizabeth Maugans, earliest meetings in home, south of Goshen OH, from Middletown Valley, MD

The local historians are beginning to admit that the Brethren were here very early, before the Indians permitted other settlers to enter (c1802).

The main roads of migration for families coming down the Ohio River in flatboats was to come in at Bullskin Landing, and follow the Old Indian Road - going past Stonelick - up the East Side of Dayton, or an Indian route through the Obannon Church community and Goshen OH, to the ford of the Great Miami River at Franklin to the West Side of Dayton. Most of the earliest Brethren in the Dayton area, came through the Obannon/Stonelick Church community to go north.

I am writing about the Millers in Kentucky and their move to Ohio. This is a part of my family history for Philip Jacob is my fourth great grandfather. It is interesting to see how he and Magdelena provided for their children, a way that many of their grandchildren and great grandchildren were to follow.

First, Philip Jacob appears to have moved from the Conococheague area of Maryland to Campbell Co., KY in 1795 or shortly thereafter. When he arrived he purchased 2,000 acres of land in Clermont and Warren Counties, OH. Some of this information can be found at the Alexandria Court House in the survey book, p.141. For example, No. 3790 reports the survey of 1,766.67 acres by William Lytt, D.S. sometime between 20 February 1800 and 9 June 1802. Jacob Miller, Jacob Snyder and Abraham Miller assisted. Philip Jacob's death appears to have occurred during the first eight or nine months of 1799 or at least after the September, 1798, session for the Campbell County Court. In September, 1799, that court ordered the appraisal of Philip Jacob's personal property and also assigned Magdelaner (sic) "her dower." The report of Philip Jacob's personal estate was made to that same September court. It appears that the appraisers went right to work. (See: Will Book A, 1795-1805, Campbell County Court)

Second, It also appears that Philip Jacob never occupied the land. Rather, that land was divided into 200 acre parcels and assigned to his children in accord with an agreement they had worked out and signed on 19 December 1799. This land, which was a part of The Virginia Military District of 1784, was to become the Millers' first location in Ohio. In 1806 Abraham, Benjamin and David Miller can be found on the Clermont County tax rolls, but Benjamin is not listed as a son on the agreement dividing the property. David appears in the 1802 Census in O'Bannon Township, Clermont County. Two Jacob Millers appeared on a petition in 1798 and one lived in O'Bannon Township in 1802, but no Jacob Miller is listed among the children of Philip Jacob. I do not have either John or Benjamin placed, but they could have been a part of an extended family that moved together. It is clear that several children of Philip Jacob and Magdelena moved to their land in O'Bannon Township very early.

Third, a question has been raised about the date on which the Stonelick Church of the Brethren was established. The oldest account I have located is in Louis H. Everts, History of Clermont County, Ohio, 1880. This account appears to have been based upon interviews for he writes, "... the following are now remembered as being members at or soon after organization ..." He also writes, "It was organized about the year 1802, though it is claimed that an organization was perfected at an earlier date." Many names are listed as being early members among which are Abraham Miller, Catherine Miller, David Miller, Magdaline (sic) Miller, Stephen Miller and wife, and Daniel Miller and wife. Everts also notes that among the first deacons was one Abraham Miller and that "this church was in it's early history called O'Bannon Baptist Church, as a majority of it's members lived on that stream." (see p. 511) The Millers were there and in those days the church was located nearby.

Fourth, my own line is that of Philip Jacob, David, Michael, Abraham, Jacob, Russell. David moved to Montgomery County purchasing land there in 1811 and 1812 and perhaps earlier. The parcels he bought in those years were attested to by deeds signed by President James Madison and Secretary of State James Monroe. I have not seen the originals and have no idea whether they still exist. A clerk in the Dayton Courthouse suggested that they would be valuable and are probably hanging or somebody's wall somewhere. These two parcels became the home farm of David and Michael and they and many members of their families are buried on the farm.

Fifth, I would be very interested in information regarding the exact German Baptist Brethren congregation they were members of in Montgomery County as well as sources showing the impact of the schism of the 1880s upon Michael 's 22 children. Michael's brief obituary indicates that he was a deacon, but does not designate the congregation. The first 12 children were born to first wife Saloma Cramer; the last 10 to second wife Elizabeth Brumbaugh. I have the obituaries of all those who died as adults except for the following seven: Mary Miller Wellbaum, Jacob, Joseph, Daniel, Aaron, Catherine Miller Russel and Issac. What an excellent example of Brethren biological evangelism this family is! Thanks in advance for your help.

I am looking for the parents of Esther Miller (1776-1850) m.c.1794 Christian Roop and lived in Maryland. Since Christian Roop came to Maryland about ten years before their marriage, her parents may have lived in Maryland.

Bruce

I've mentioned this to some others, but I think this is the first time I've put it on the Net.

David Miller came to Clermont Co OH, and took 200 Acres of land in the Obannon Church. His brother, Daniel Miller, came in 1798 to Clermont Co and took 100 Acres of land immediately south of David. So David was already here in 1798.
David soon moved north. (I don't have my papers with me right now! I left them with the Goshen twp Historian - he's deeply involved in trading my information that he doesn't have, for his that I don't have.)

The land in reference is: (east side of Cincinnati) -about 1 1/2 miles due south of Goshen OH, just east of OH 132. The Woodville Pike would be along the southern edge of the 200 Acres, with the 100 Acre tract angling across the Pike from SW to NE and lying south of it. This would be the southwestern edge of the old Obannon Congregation.

The Obannon Church was founded 1795, probably among the Bowmans --and maybe David Miller was here then. The 1921 History of Bre in So OHIO -p 165, also mentions a John Aukerman here in 1789. The Bowmans lived in Warren Co (c1790), maybe 3-5 miles north of Goshen. John Aukerman could have been at Camp Dennison, on the Little Miami River, or even north to Loveland --in Hamilton Co OH --which would have been 3-5 miles west/NW of David Miller's land. David's brother Abraham came out sometime in this period --and lived near Loveland. This is the earliest dating I have for the Obannon/Stonelick Church.

Philip Jacob Miller's 2000 Acres was north of Goshen. It is angled, with a point down toward Goshen, in Clermont Co, but most of it lying NE into Warren Co. The crossroads town -Murdock would have been about the NW corner of the 2000 Acres. Most of the rest of the Philip Jacob Miller children came there, before some of them moved on to the Dayton area and to Elkhart Co IN.

I would be glad to exchange information on the Miller family. Now I DO have to get my Easter Sunday Sermon done!!

In a message to the Brethren group yesterday, I quoted the following information on Abraham Miller and added the comment below it. The comment I added is wrong. I should have checked my Miller information at home before I sent it. The Nancy Miller and Susannah Miller who married Joseph Martin were the 6th and 7th children of David Miller and Magdalena Maugans. They were not children of Abraham Miller and Catharine Maugans. My next message to the Brethren group will summarize what I know about those marriages and the descendants. Since their father, David Miller, was a son of Phillip Jacob Miller, all of their descendants are also descendants of Philip Jacob Miller and his ancestors.

— brother to Magdalena Miller who married Daniel Crist

7. Abraham Miller was born in 1764 in Frederick County MD. He was buried in 1859 in Sycamore Twp, Hamilton County, OH. He died on 28 Apr 1859 in Clermont County, OH. He had an estate probated on 28 May 1859 in Cincinnati, Hamilton, Ohio. He was a Farmer. He was Brethren.
He was married to Catharine Morgan/Maugans (daughter of Conrad Maugin and Rebecca) about 1784. Catharine Morgan/Maugans was born between 1765 and 1767. She died >1860 in Sycamore Twp, Hamilton County, OH. She resided in Warren County, OH. Abraham Miller and Catharine Morgan/Maugans had the following children:

15 i. Stephen Miller was born in 1785.
+16 ii. Emannuel Miller.
17 iii. Catherine Miller was born in 1791.
18 iv. Jacob Miller was born in 1793.
19 v. Susan Miller was born in 1796.
20 vi. Sarah Miller was born in 1798.
+21 vii. John B. Miller.
22 viii. Nancy Miller was born in 1802.
23 ix. Mary 1804 Miller.
24 x. Miller was born in 1804.
25 xi. Abraham Miller was born in 1809.

INCORRECT INFORMATION I ADDED
I think this is where Joseph Martin, son of John Martin Jr. and Apolonia Bucher and brother to Jacob Martin, fits in. Joseph Martin married Feb. 26, 1818, Montgomery Co OH, Nancy Miller (1800-1822) and married June 5, 1823, in Montgomery Co OH, Susannah Miller (1800-01 - 1851-52). I think this is the family Nancy and Susannah come from but I will have to check my resources at home to make sure. I have 3 children for Joseph and Nancy and 10 children for Joseph and Susannah, with lots of descendants.

CHILDREN OF JOSEPH MARTIN AND SUSANNAH MILLER

Some time between the June, 1836, birth of their daughter, Rosanna, and the 1840 census, Joseph and Susannah Martin moved to Randolph Co IND. The 1840 White River Twp, Randolph Co IND census shows Joseph Martin with 14 people in his household, 1 male 10-15, 3 males 15-20, 1 male 40-50, 3 females under 5, 2 females 5-10, 2 females 10-15, 1 female 15-20, and 1 female 30-40. Allowing for John, David, and Jacob and all the children who were living with them in the 1850 census, there are one male and three females who are not accounted for. One of those might be:

4? Mary Martin - born about 1824-5. There is a 25 year old Mary Martin living with Joseph Martin's son, John Martin, in the 1850 census. This is likely a sister. Did this Mary Martin marry Elias Walters? the 1880 Jackson Twp Darke Co OH census shows Elias and Mary Walters living with their children and Rachel Martin sister-in-law. Joseph and Susannah Martin had a daughter, Rachel, who was blind. While the 1880 census does not show this Rachel Martin as blind and the age doesn't match, this is still a good possibility.

5. Samuel Martin - born 1828-9 OH, listed in 1850 census as "deaf and dumb"

6. Elizabeth Martin - born 1829-30, OH, listed in 1850 census

7. Abigal Martin - born June 22, 1832, Montgomery Co OH, died March 24, 1912, Pikeville, Darke Co OH, married March 8, 1857, Lemuel E. Willis (1832, Red Lion, Warren Co OH - 1908, Pikeville, Darke Co OH)

8. Rachel Martin - born 1834-5, OH, listed in 1850 census as "blind"

9. Rosanna Martin - born June, 1836, listed in 1850 census, married Sept. 30, 1852, Randolph Co IND, John Goodin (May, 1826, VA - June 20, 1905, Randolph Co IND) A newspaper article on the 1914 Martin reunion lists John Goodin of Farmland IND as Asst. Secretary of the Martin Family Assn. The 1860 Monroe Twp, Randolph Co IND census shows, living near Joseph Martin's brother, Andrew, and his family, John and Rosanna Goodin (spelled Gooden), their children Isaac and Martha Jane, and Rosanna's brother, Noah Martin.

10. Sophie Martin - born 1838-9, IND, in 1850 census, likely the person who married Jan. 4, 1855, Randolph Co IND, Michael Lavin

11. Catharine Martin - born Feb. 21, 1840, Randolph Co IND, married March 10, 1864, Darke Co OH, Josiah Creager (1838, Darke Co OH - April 6, 1908, Darke Co OH)

12. Susannah Martin - born Feb. 16, 1842, Randolph Co IND, died June 11, 1920, Randolph Co IND, married March 24, 1864, Randolph Co IND, Dennis Lennon (July 12, 1836, Kilnaeran, Monahan (Monoghan) Co Ireland - Nov. 12, 1917, Randolph Co IND) (One wonders what reaction she would have received from her father when she married an Irish Catholic.)

13. Noah Martin - born 1843-4, IND, listed in the 1850 census with Joseph

Martin and in the 1860 census with his sister, Rosanna Goodin, served in the Civil War in the 84th Regiment, Company A, which was mostly from the Farmland area of Randolph Co IND, died of disease, Oct. 14, 1863, Chattanooga TN

CHILDREN OF JOSEPH MARTIN AND ELIZABETH _____ (WIDOW OF ANDREW ROMIZER)

14. Patrick Martin - born July, 1854, Randolph Co IND, married 1896-7 (her second) Nettie ____ - born Sept., 1855, NY. They were living in Marion IND in 1900 census

15. Eliza Martin - born 1855-6, IND, listed in 1860 census

16. Emma Martin - born 1857-8, IND, listed in 1860 census
